

How Someone Might Try To Become "Your Friend"

- Someone might say that they are your friend but they could be predators.
- Someone might be in your chat room and say that they are your friend's, friend.
- Someone might try to meet you some where
- Don't give out any information to "your new friend"

Remember don't give out any information to "Your Friend"

This might be the Predator looking for you.
